Garden & Allotments

The Melplash Agricultural Society is once again searching for the best gardens and allotment in the area. Our annual Garden and Allotment competition will be judged on 18th and 19th June 2024. As well as prizes for the best small, medium and large gardens and the best allotment, there will be a special award for Best Environmental and Wildlife Practice and new for 2024, a special award for the most unusual garden theme or feature. Every type and size of garden or allotment can be entered, the only stipulation is that the garden is designed and looked after by the entrant. If part-time help is employed it should be for no more than 8 hours per week.
22/08/2024 08:00

Gardens & Allotments

The Melplash Agricultural Society is once again searching for the best gardens and allotment in the area. Our annual Garden and Allotment competition will be judged on 18th and 19th June 2024. As well as prizes for the best small, medium and large gardens and the best allotment, there will be a special award for Best Environmental and Wildlife Practice and new for 2024, a special award for the most unusual garden theme or feature. Every type and size of garden or allotment can be entered, the only stipulation is that the garden is designed and looked after by the entrant. If part-time help is employed it should be for no more than 8 hours per week.
Ring: Garden / Allotment

Judges

Ms Alison Waterman (Judge)
Mrs Gillian Livingston (Judge)
Mr Richard Middleton (Judge)

Number	Name	Description
G1	Best Garden	Open to gardens within 12 miles of Melplash village church and not employing a gardener for more than 8 hours per week. 2023 first place winners are not eligible to enter in 2024.
G2	Best Allotment	Open to allotments within 12 miles of Melplash village church and not employing a gardener for more than 8 hours per week. 2023 first place winners are not eligible to enter in 2024.