Horticulture

Horticulture Section – Where Green Thumbs Battle for Glory!

Step aside, mere mortals — the gardeners have arrived, and they're ready to show off their finest fruits, flowers, and fiercely competitive courgettes!

Our Horticulture Section is a place where carrots are judged harder than reality show contestants, and a slightly wonky marrow could spark a full-scale family debate.
Expect vegetables polished to perfection, flowers fluffed to fabulousness, and enough homegrown pride to power the entire village.

There'll be blooms bigger than your head, onions that could take down a small elephant, and tomatoes displayed like prized jewels. Every leaf, petal, and potato has been nurtured with love, whispered to at dawn, and possibly serenaded by moonlight — all in the quest for that all-important rosette.

Come marvel at nature's finest — and remember: behind every beautiful beetroot, there's a gardener who's definitely "not competitive" at all. (Promise),
